

Boom, Boom
John Lee Hooker

Instrumental Verse (main riff)

Verse 1:

                                  E G A E
Boom, boom, boom, boom
                                  E G A E
I'm gonna shoot you right down,
                                  A C D A
right off your feet
                                  E G A E
Take you home with me,
                                  B B B B
put you in my house
                                  E G A E
Boom, boom, boom, boom

Verse 2:

                                  E G A E
I love to see you strut,
                                  E G A E
up and down the floor
                                  A C D A
When you talking to me,
                                  E G A E
that baby talk
                                  B B B B
I like it like that
                                  E G A E
Boom boom boom boom
                                  E G A E
How, how, how, how
                                  E G A E
How, how, how, how           Whoa, yeah!

12 Bar Boogie x2

Verse 3:

                                  E G A E
When she walk that walk,
                                  E G A E
and talk that talk,
                                  A C D A
and whisper in my ear,
                                  E G A E
tell me that you love me
                                  B B B B
I love that talk
                                  E G A E
Boom boom boom boom
                                  E G A E
How, how, how, how
                                  E G A E
How, how, how, how           Whoa, yeah!
