E

B7

When I left out of Georgia, you know I was Memphis bound

Verse 2:

Well, I stayed in Memphis in 1969

That woman I loved didn't pay me no mind

So I left that town, you know I left that town

When I left out of Memphis, you know I was St. Louis bound

Harp solo

Verse 3:

I didn't need no steam heat by my bed

Lady I slept with kept it cherry red

Well, I left that town, hmm, I left that town

When I left St. Louis, you know I was Chicago bound

Piano solo

Verse 4:

I'm gonna tell you something you oughta know

Chicago's the best place I ever knowed

I'm gonna stay in this town, I'm gonna live in this town

Going to live in Chicago, the greatest place around
